

SL Renata Spinks

Cyber Technology Officer

U.S. Marine Corps Cyberspace Command

Ms. Renata Spinks currently serves as the Cyber Technology Officer (CTO), U.S. Marine Corps Forces Cyberspace Command (MARFORCYBER); the first in the Federal Government and US Marines. She is a direct support to the Commander of MARFORCYBER, Major General Matthew Glavy, USMC and secondary reporting structured to General Paul Nakasone, Commander, United States Cyber Command and the 38th Commandant of the USMC (CMC), General David Berger. In this role, Ms. Spinks leads technology planning and cyberspace technical concept development with solution delivery for offensive and defensive cyber operations. She also leads the mission to Secure, Operate and Defend USMC Enterprise Network.

Ms. Spinks brings a unique set of skills to the Corps as a decorated 44th MEDCOM Combat Veteran (US Army OIF 2003) and an industry recognized expert in computer forensics, information systems and assurance, risk management and cyber operations. Her experience includes designing, engineering, and certifying analytical financial systems as well as providing hands-on keyboard action for investigations/law enforcement sectors for the Intelligence Community (IC).

Prior to joining MARFORCYBER, Ms. Spinks served in the U.S. Treasury HQ; Millennium Challenge Corporation U.S. State Department, the IRS, Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Homeland Security Investigations supporting Human Trafficking and Child Exploitation Investigations and The US Army as a Patient Administrator responsible for Medical Evacuation and Healthcare Information Processing. Ms. Spinks holds a BS in Information Systems, a MS in Technology Management and several certifications, recommendations and awards.

As an avid community service contributor and Life Experience Coach, she coaches women, men and youth into the holistic pursuit and achievement of their purpose. She is still very involved in programs that combat Domestic Violence, Human Trafficking and Child Exploitation.

Ms. Spinks is a sought-after STEM Key Note Speaker and Director of “The Bosslady Network.” She is looking forward to the 2020 publication of her book “Act Like a Lady Think Like a Bosslady.” and is a Louisiana native who loves New Orleans Saints Football, cooking and as a recognized CIAA Elite Student Athlete, still loves to play basketball.
